1863.

No. 48 North Tenth Street,
17*th August*, 1863.

In offering the present collection for sale I beg to state that it contains some unusually fine Dollars and also Half Dollars, quite equal to any that have ever yet been offered for sale—it will afford also an excellent opportunity for Collectors improving their collection of Cents, as a great many will be found of exceedingly fine quality.

The Collection of Presidential and Political is remarkably fine. There is also a considerable assortment of desirable Washington and Miscellaneous pieces, and one of the best selection of Store Cards yet offered for public competition. I am willing to hope that the description of the condition of the Coins will be satisfactory to the Collectors.

EDWARD COGAN.

While the condition of a portion of the rarer pieces in this Catalogue has been accurately noted, much the larger portion has been left without description. The entire collection is in unusually fine condition, and many of the pieces, especially among the political medalets, are unexampled for elegance of preservation.

CATALOGUE

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN

Coins, Medals, and Tokens,

SELECTED FROM THE STOCK OF

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD,

OF ROXBURY, MASS.,

TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION,

BY FRANCIS J. SHELDON,

At his Rooms, 36 North Main Street,

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND,

ON THE EVENING OF DECEMBER 23, 1863.

Sale to commence at 6½ o'clock, precisely.

GENTLEMEN UNABLE TO BE PRESENT MAY HAVE THEIR ORDERS FAITHFULLY EXECUTED WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE BY ADDRESSING THE AUCTIONEER.

BOSTON:
PRESS OF GEO. C. RAND & AVERY, 3 CORNHILL.
1863.

Roxbury, Mass., Dec. 10, 1863.

At the request of several friends in Providence, who have always favored me with liberal orders for my sales in New York, I am induced to offer the following collection for sale in that city. Feeling confident of a liberal support there, I trust that collectors in other places, attracted by the more than ordinary variety and rarity, may be induced to attend the sale, or at least to favor it with their orders.

As regards the descriptions, I have faithfully endeavored to make them reliable in every particular, and am confident that in no instance will a piece be found to be "over-described." One great object that I have in view is to reduce a stock of most unwieldy proportions, and I have accordingly given the auctioneer instructions to sell every lot.

I can hardly hope, in all instances, to realize even fair prices; and collectors need not be reminded that this is a peculiarly favorable opportunity to possess themselves of very fine things at very low prices.

A priced Catalogue of my recent sale in New York will be ready in about one week from the present time. It will be sent to any address on receipt of one dollar. Catalogues of my sale of last May I am still able to furnish; price, seventy-five cents.

A very few copies only remain of the Catalogue of the Finotti Sale. While the supply continues, they will be furnished at the original price of fifty cents.

One copy of each of the above Catalogues will be sent for two dollars. It is not proposed to publish a priced catalogue of the present sale, but a few will be priced by hand, and sold at fifty cents each.

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD.
